Press release

Launch of the myDATA digital platform for all businesses

It started a pilot today, 1st/ 10/2020, the digital transmission on the Electronic Books platform - myDATA for all companies and for documents issued from this date onwards.

With a Joint Decision of the Deputy Minister of Finance Mr. Apostolos Vesypoulos and the Commander of AADE Mr. George Pitsilis for the activation of the myDATA platform, the degree of readiness of the companies was taken into account due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In this context, it is provided that:

- For 2020, companies can only send the documents of the last quarter (October - December). The obligation to transmit receipts for the whole of 2020 will remain only for the companies that will receive the e-invoicing incentives through a provider for this year.
- Digital transmission of documents to myDATA becomes mandatory from 1st/ 1/2021.

In more detail, from today, 1st/ 10/2020, through the address mydata.aade.gov.gr:

- You can register in the special interface of AADE (myDATA RESTAPI) for transmission of documents through business management programs (commercial / accounting, ERP).
- The special document registration form is available for companies with a small turnover or a small number of documents. Within November, these companies will have the opportunity through the myDATA platform to issue their invoices and receive their copies in digital form.

From Monday 5/10/2020 at the Taxpayer Service Center (KEF, tel .: 213.1621000) there will be a special service and query reception for the Electronic Books platform - myDATA.

We invite all companies to actively participate in the pilot quarter, to prepare for the production period and to contribute with fruitful remarks to the improvement of the myDATA platform.

"A great innovation, which was our programmatic commitment, is being implemented today. It is a huge step forward that facilitates businesses and changes their daily lives for the better. "Our goal is to provide the best possible service to the business, especially in an extremely difficult period", said the Deputy Minister of Finance, Mr. Apostolos Vesypoulos.

"We have managed, through difficult conditions and many challenges, to create a flexible and efficient digital service for businesses. We are starting a pilot and we call on the market to participate immediately and reap the benefits ", said the Commander of AADE Mr. George Pitsilis.
